Since the company name changed from Cosmo Chemical Co., Ltd. to COSMO FOODS Co., Ltd. in May 1974, we have mainly produced seasoning and functional food ingredients produced from underutilized protein from natural edible animals and plants at a factory in Ashikaga, Tochigi prefecture, attempting to expand our business and stabilize management foundation.

We constructed a plant in Memuro town, Tokachi in 1991 to exploit abundant underutilized resources of farm and marine products in Hokkaido, and established the manufacturing technology to produce amino acid seasonings from potato-derived protein obtained in Hokkaido. To promote maximum use of dry beer years, we have produced seasoning from beer yeast extract since 1995.

Moreover, by positioning the Hokkaido factory as a production and development base, we established an additional factory for powder and paste processing in 1998 and technical research laboratory for a new product development in 2005 as well as a factory for lactic acid bacterium production in 2006.

We have been promoting the effective use of underutilized natural resources for about 41 years from the day of foundation, and we will continue to promote this based on the Hokkaido factory with all the employees’ efforts to contribute local revitalization.
